

Lead Surgical Technologist

Digestive Care Center is seeking a Lead Surgical Technologist who assists with endoscopic procedures according to physician's orders and in conformance with established policies and procedures in the endoscopy center. This position will be for the new Jasper location, which is set to open in Fall 2019.

This is a full time position.

Summary of Duties

The Lead Surgical Technologist provides comprehensive clinical support in our endoscopy center for patients undergoing outpatient procedures for gastrointestinal issues. This position is also responsible for equipment ordering/maintenance and record keeping.

Responsibilities/Duties

- Assists physician during procedure.
- Maintains equipment, supplies and accessories to ensure proper use & function.
- Follows policies for appropriate disinfection of endoscopes.
- Clean and sterilize endoscopic accessories according to policies & procedures.
- Demonstrates calmness and professionalism throughout the procedure.
Promotes an optimal patient environment.
- Anticipates patient and physician needs for each individualized procedure.
- Demonstrates initiative, insight and good judgment in decision making.
- Responsible for ordering endoscopy supplies
- Maintains life-safety records for endoscopy staff
- Ensures equipment maintenance is completed timely

Qualifications/Skills

- Medical Assistant, Surgery Technologist or LPN (graduate of an accredited program)
- BLS Certification required within 6 months of hire, and maintained
- Endoscopy experience preferred
- Membership in local, state and national societies is encouraged.

To join our dynamic team, please submit your resume today to HR@dccevv.com